Mother's Ruin

Surely you've heard of "Mother's Ruin," that sinful liquid known as gin, much favored by the working folk of Dublin's lanes. Though notorious as a threat to clear thinking, these rough-and-tumble types savored its bitterness and the joy it brought.

Bombay Sapphire

6.8

Bless me, but the Bombay be perfect with some tonic and a slice of fresh lemon. Sure, 'tis the way to bring out the best of that fine gin's botanicals.

Opihr Oriental Spiced

6.6

Arr, make the Opihr Oriental Spiced gin shine, mix it with a light tonic and a slice of ginger, me hearty! It'll have yer tastebuds singing like a canary in no time.

Gordon's Pink

6.4

Back in the day, the perfect mixer for a lovely bottle of Pink Gin was a splash of lemonade. To add a bit of zing, a few slices of fresh strawberries or raspberries.

Whitley Neill Rhubarb and Ginger

8.8

Listen here now, the perfect mix for Whitley Neill Rhubarb and Ginger is some good old-fashioned ginger beer, a dash of lime juice, and a slice of ginger. Top it all off with some ice, and you've got yourself a drink that'll put a smile on your mug.

Irish Gunpowder

9

To have the finest tasting Irish Gunpowder, mix it with a splash of elderflower tonic and a slice of fresh grapefruit, for an explosion of flavors like no other!

Tanqueray TEN

9

Well, if ye be wanting to enjoy Tanqueray TEN at its finest, then ye best be mixin' it with some freshly squeezed grapefruit juice and a splash of elderflower tonic. And don't be forgettin' to garnish it with a twist of grapefruit peel, me lad.

Dingle Gin

7.3

Ahoy! Dingle Gin pairs beautifully with a classic tonic water and a hearty sprig of fresh rosemary as garnish, creating a delightful concoction that's sure to please any seafaring soul.

Hendricks

8.2

If ye be lookin' fer a way to take yer Hendricks to the next level, try mixin' it with a splash o' elderflower tonic and servin' it up with a cucumber garnish. It'll be a refreshin' drink fit for a lord or lady.

Beers & Ciders

Listen up, me hearty lads and lasses! If it's draught beer that tickles yer fancy, look no further. We've got a wide array of the finest brews, poured fresh and served up right, to quench your thirst and keep you jolly all night!
